ABOUT YOUR BIRTH CHART

GENERATING YOUR BIRTH CHART

Your Birth Chart has been generated by decoding your Birth Name, which holds the energetic blueprint for your life. The letters of your Birth Name are mapped to their equivalent numbers, which are then placed around the Star of David until they have all been used up. Numerology is then used to derive the number pairs for each aspect (e.g. Physical Karma). Each aspect has a matching symbol. The numbers and symbols together deliver the energetic transmission to your soul.

THE TWO TRIANGLES

The large downward pointing triangle represents the energies of your physical, outer world life, how your personality initially forms and interacts with society. The large upward pointing triangle represents the energies of your spiritual, inner life, how you are meant to connect with higher consciousness so as to embody it and then express it into the world.

THE INTERPRETATION OF YOUR BIRTH CHART

On the next page we explain what the aspects are and how they relate to your life. We also give you a summary interpretation of the number pairs in each of those aspects which are specific to your Birth Chart.
